Hopificio Sud is a no-profit organization!

We often hear sentences like that : "You young people will be the future of society" or "Businesses are continuing to make money because they are the engine of our economy" . We hear this too many times but we have always clashed with the reality of a small territory that is never been able to build this future. We believe that the SURPRISE EFFECT and HOPE are the essential ingredients at the base of every process of change of life and we are firmly convinced that the future must be built from the present! Our activities are:

- Information, guidance and assistance on current regulations in terms of incentives and facilitations useful for development
- Accompaniment to the design through the presentation of tools useful for the correct drafting of an entrepreneurial idea to turn it into a real business project
- Training through courses and days dedicated to acquiring skills in the fields of creative, social and cultural entrepreneurship and planning.
